presents a

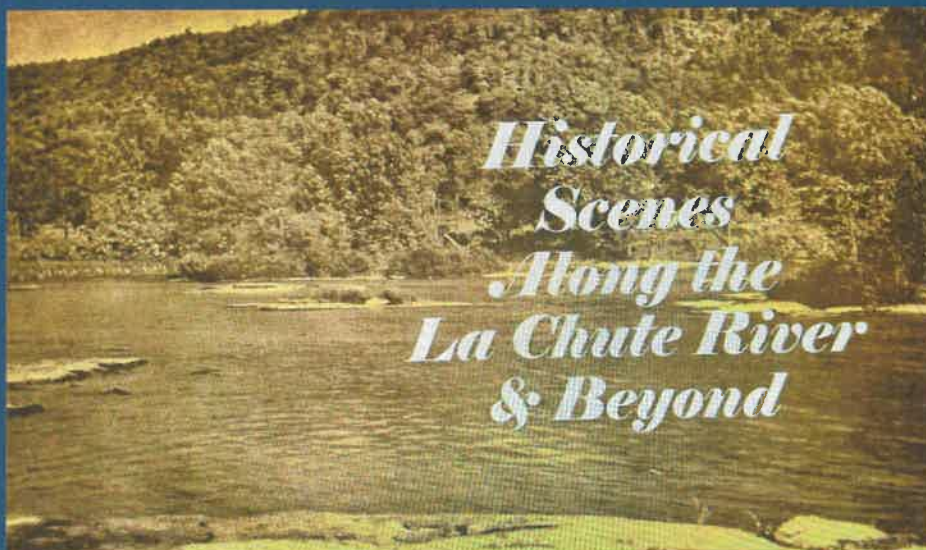

Free Public Program

“Historical Scenes Along the La Chute”

Friday, June 7, 2024 7 p.m.

Program Room—Hancock House Museum,
6 Moses Circle, Ticonderoga

Using vintage photographs, LARCH President and Ticonderoga Town Historian William Dolback offers a fascinating personal narrative of historic scenes and activity along the La Chute River and its environs.

Running through the town, the La Chute was not only witness to world-famous military history, but helped power Ticonderoga's industries.

This program will be held in the lower-level program room of the Hancock House Museum.

Reservations are recommended and may be made by calling 518-585-7868
