Program Room—Hancock House
Museum,
6 Moses Circle, Ticonderoga

Speaker Brian O'Connor notes that the American Revolution did not just happen overnight. Years before ties were formally severed with the British Empire, the Stamp Act, Boston Tea Party, and other events signaled a growing dissatisfaction with the mother country which would eventually lead to war. Join us for a look at the build-up of actions and sentiments that would to the event that would change the world forever.

This program will be held in the lower-level program room of the Hancock House Museum.
